Thanks Andrew! I think this looks good. On item #2, we haven't formulated a communication plan and I think other than notifying Ecology of our final action, the plan for now is to not do much else. We can keep that topic on the agenda if you want, I just wanted you to be aware that we may not have much to say on it.

Thanks, Miranda. Here are my proposed agenda items. Your thoughts?

1. Overview of EPA approval / disapproval
2. EPA's communication plan
3. Ecology's communication plan (cover letter)
4. Ecology's proposal to use 2015 TMDL (e.g. MS4 permit for temperature)
5. Options for the proposed hatchery with or without an EPA TMDL
6. EPA's plan to write new TMDL - Discuss options for bacteria (note timing around MS4 permit)
7. Discuss points of needed consistency between Budd Inlet TMDL and future Deschutes TMDL.
Examples:
 - o Budd Inlet is developing N and BOD limits for permittees in the Deschutes watershed – which may overlap with future Deschutes TMDL limits

o How a future Deschutes TMDL addresses downstream Capitol Lake versus Budd Inlet TMDL addresses upstream Capitol Lake

Subject: Agenda

Hi Andrew,

I got your voicemail. For our meeting next week, feel free to email us the draft agenda. I'll give you a call sometime tomorrow or Monday after we've had a chance to look at it.

Thanks!
